2023

EMERGING LEADERS

The Emerging Leaders Program engages young professionals (between 25-35) from A Better City member companies in programming related to Transportation and Infrastructure, Land Use and Development, Energy and the Environment. Events include, presentations from senior decision makers across private industry and government, guided tours of innovative buildings, and social events to encourage professional networking.

A Better City hosts 2-4 compelling events and activities a year for the Emerging Leaders with the priority of cultivating conversation and learning, around enhancing the built environment, and fostering a vibrant and globally competitive region.

IMAGINE A BRIGHT FUTURE

MAKE IT A REALITY

Emerging Leaders are ambitious up-and-comers at their respective organizations from across the spectrum of the Greater Boston business community. Participants include a broad range of stakeholders including commercial developers, financial institutions, healthcare providers, higher education institutions, law firms, biotech, property owners, and more.

Program participants are nominated by their respective company's A Better City Board Member. These nominations can be submitted to: Leann Kosior: Membership and Business Development Manager at lkosior@abettercity.org.

The logo for 'A Better City' is displayed in three horizontal teal bars. The top bar contains the letter 'A'. The middle bar contains the word 'BETTER'. The bottom bar contains the word 'CITY' followed by an orange icon of a hand pointing upwards and to the right.
